1st Wednesday

Thanks to Beth for bringing us a challenging team building exercise this evening. Each team was provided with paper clips, tape, straws, a manila folder, and some string. The goal was to make 'something' to launch a jawbreaker.

It was most interesting to watch the creative process at work as each team shared ideas and construction techniques. When the allotted time had expired, each team had an opportunity to launch the jawbreaker.

The Bob, Curtis, & Jane Team was declared the winner!

Meeting Notes

Program

1st Wednesday

Thanks

To Phyllis who shared humor this evening:

Life Membership Game

No one won the game this evening. The balance carries forward to our next game and is GROWING even more!

Marge, Harry & Beth Team

Bob, Curtis, & Jane Team

Trish, Phyllis, & Max Team

Beth was not too pleased with her team's launch

NEW Google site has been set up for our Chapel Hill Optimist calendar. All members have been set up with access using their email address. See email from Bob for the link and send Bob your feedback.

Welcome to New Arrivals and BEST WISHES to the whole family!

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Marshall have new baby twins, Martha and Maria. Harry shared their photo with us this evening, a beaming proud papa. We send best wishes to the entire family.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Jim Casey continues to make good progress in his recovery.
- We need a volunteer to assist with publicity for our activities. Contact Bob if you can help.
- The Duke Children’s Hospital Radiothon in February has requested our assistance again this year. We have requested either a Tuesday or Thursday evening time slot of 6—8 pm. Watch for more details coming soon.
- Max has checked with Chatham County Together and indicates that they would welcome a bowling outing sponsored by our club. Max and Phyllis will further research the possibilities.
- Chatham County Together and UNC Pediatric Hematology/Oncology have acknowledged our contributions in their newsletters. Boys and Girls Homes sent ‘Thank You’ letter and card.
